The musical score is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Above the staff, there are extensive red markings, including slurs, accents, and various symbols (such as 'x' and 'f') that likely represent specific performance instructions or liturgical rubrics. The lyrics are in Latin and are aligned with the notes of the melody. The text is divided into several lines, with some lines starting with a 'V.' (Versicle) and others with a '†' (Tract). The final line of the score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
